NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS.

Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid

which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city,

A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material.

He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated

Monterey Lime Stone Quarry,

on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of

ATHENS MARBLE

(or Chicago stone). He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distance from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

He is prepared to furnish

Cut Stone

of every description,

PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGING

of any required dimension.

Curbing, Paving, Ruble and Coursing

stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city, to suit purchasers.

In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.

All Orders from the city or country will be promptly attended to.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS.

Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid

QUARRY OF FREESTONE,

which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city,

A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material,

He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated

Monterey Lime Stone Quarry,

on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of

ATHENS MARBLE

(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

He is prepared to furnish

Cut Stone

of every description,

PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGING

of any required dimension.

Curbing, Paving, Ruble and Coursing

stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city, to suit purchasers.

In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.

☞ All Orders from the city or country will be promptly attended to.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

The officers of the general government in the territory are actively assisting in this work. ARIZONA.—The settlers of Arizona are reported to have held a convention, and framed a provisional government. The constitution and governmental organization adopted are to remain in force till congress shall give them a territorial organization.—L. S. Owen was chosen provisional governor, and Ignatius Orrantia lieutenant governor. Three district judges, and a major general of the militia were also appointed.

ONLY ONE CONDITION.—Senator Wade, when he was struggling the other day to get a hearing for the homestead bill, was sore pressed to give way, but he replied as follows:

For my part, I will not postpone it (the homestead bill) for anything but a funeral, until we have finished it.

City Roads.

[The following communication is in addition to the one referred to yesterday as too blindly written to be read.]

EDITORS OF GAZETTE:—I am pleased in reading your Hon. Mayor's inaugural, to see his recommendation in reference to the thoroughfares of the city of Janesville. He says "all our thoroughfares should be so repaired as to render the city accessible from the surrounding country at all seasons of the year," and gives his reasons. He might have said easily accessible and not exceeded moderation in the advice.

This recommendation shows him to be alive to the welfare of your city, and the necessity of increasing its importance by practical means.

The, to me, seeming necessity of an improvement, particularly in reference to one of the highways of Janesville, has led me to try and add a mite—if that is possible—to induce your city authorities to make a move in that direction. It is of great moment to those living along the line of the old Racine road, that something should be done to render the city more easily accessible than at present for loaded teams from this direction, without traveling around "Robin Hood's barn." We have ever, with a short exception, been under the necessity, if traveling the direct road, of hauling our thousands of loads of grain and other marketables up, or rather through, that sand bluff, which is almost impassable at times from its dryness. And the road has been shut up, altered and discontinued, or bridges thrown down, &c., according as commissioners or supervisors could be found to take sides with the cliques or clans of a neighborhood contention, until frequent passers have been at a loss to know whether they were on the right track for the city. And latterly we are driven over an almost insurmountable hill in addition to the sand, or through the mire and quicksand of Spring Brook.

Now all this could be borne patiently, if there could be no method of relief adopted, but there can be, and as the difficulty exists within the city limits, principally, to the city authorities chiefly does the country look for the remedy.

The present road does very well for light wagons and carriages, but loaded teams do groan for the cruelty of man in compelling them to crawl through that sand with their burdens, when another and easier road to the city market might be provided. There was, for a time, a very good entrance to the city market from this direction, but that has been for nearly a year closed, and it certainly seems to be time, if the produce trade from this region is worth preserving, that the city authorities of Janesville should interfere and give us a moderately decent road.

This is not the voice of one, for I know that I speak the minds of hundreds of your city's supporters—the farmer, having heard complaints without ont number about the city's accessibleness. N. D.

Emerald Grove, April 23.

THE DIFFICULTY BETWEEN GOV. WALKER AND ATTORNEY GENERAL BLACK.—The existence of the famous letter of the President to Gov. Walker, which we have published, was disclosed to the Covode committee by a Mr. E. B. Schnabel, who had seen it. In the course of his examination he said he had spoken about the letter to Attorney General Black. The Attorney General denied its existence. He said further, according to Mr. Schnabel:

He declared that no such document existed, and never did exist. I told him I had seen it. He affirmed that I was mistaken; that if such a letter existed no good citizen would withhold it. I inquired of him whether he invited its production in the name of the President. He replied "Yes," that he challenged its production. That if Gov. Walker had such a paper, his duty to his country, as well as himself, required him to produce it. The point in fact, however, he said the story was not founded in truth, or words to that effect. Many severe remarks passed between us. He was in a state of great excitement. When I referred a second time to my having seen it, he again, in high rage, said I was in gross error; that the President never wrote such a document; and if Gov. Walker, or any other person, pretended to have such a document, it was was a mere pretense to cover up a perpetrated or intended treason to the democratic party, or a mere pretext for deserting to the black republican ranks. He further added, that if any one attacked the administration on this ground, (to use his exact words,) "We will put a shirt upon him from which he will never escape."

WIFE VERSUS LADY.—It is certainly not in good taste for a gentleman to speak of his wife as a lady, or to register their names upon the books of a hotel, as "John Smith and Lady;" or to ask a friend, "How is your lady?" This is all fashionable valgarity, and invariably betrays a lack of cultivation. The term wife is far more beautiful and appropriate and refined, whatever may be said to the contrary. Suppose a lady were to say, instead of "my husband," "my gentleman; or suppose we were to speak of "Mrs. Fitz Maurice and her gentleman." The thing would be positively ludicrous, and its obverse is none the less so, if rightly considered. A man's wife is his wife, and not his lady, and we marvel that this latter term is not utterly tabooed, in such a connection, at least by educated and intelligent people. It ought to be left for the exclusive use of the codfish aristocracy.—Providence Press.

WHOLESALE SLAUGHTER OF INFECTED CATTLE.—The commissioners appointed under an act of the legislature to take measures to exterminate the cattle disease now making such ravages in the towns of North Brookfield and New Braintree, Worcester county, have, after a full examination of the cattle of the infected districts, decided upon the course to pursue, and yesterday commenced the work of slaughter. At the farm of Mr. A. Woodis, twenty-one full grown grey Durham cows, of a valuable kind, with eight or ten calves, were killed. At the farm of Mr. Alanson A. Needham, who has lost seven animals by the disease, the twenty-three remaining were killed. The stock of Leonard Stoddard, consisting of forty-eight head, with several calves, would probably be all slaughtered, as the determination is to kill the whole herd where a portion are infected. Several surgeons accompany the commissioners.—Boston Traveler, Thursday evening.

PIKE'S PEAK WIT.—They have a "poet" at Pike's Peak, who has perpetrated the following squib:

While others seek in vain!

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

CHARLESTON, April 24.

Tribune's Correspondence.—All the speakers at the meeting of the southern delegation, last night, were decidedly radical and uncompromising; nothing short of an extreme platform will satisfy them, except a southern candidate, and he must be Mr. Hunter.

Douglas' defeat or the disruption of the convention seems inevitable. If a combination can be formed to give him the necessary number, six states would instantly withdraw and probably nominate Davis, seconded by Fernando Wood and his followers.

Mr. Buchanan's letter of withdrawal is in the pocket of a delegate.

Mr. Wright, of Pennsylvania, made a strong appeal for harmony, and advocated the rule that every delegate be permitted to cast his vote in accordance with his convictions, and those of his constituents.

Mr. Flourney returned thanks, counceling moderation and harmony. Hon. Caleb Cushing was then introduced as President of the convention, and made a most eloquent speech. His allusion to Calhoun and his motto of "truth, justice and the constitution," called forth prolonged cheering. It was the destiny of the democratic party, he said, to stand upon this and strike down and conquer the traitors and fanaticism arrayed against it in one section of the Union. Mr. Cushing was again loudly cheered upon the conclusion of his address.

About a half an hour was then spent in settling the Vice Presidents and arranging for the secretaries, and also preparing for a formal and energetic enforcement of parliamentary rules in the future proceedings of the convention.

A warm debate then sprung up on the rule reported by the committee on organization, in which Messrs. Richardson, McCook, Cessna of Pennsylvania, Barry of Mississippi, Josiah Randall and many others took part.

Several of the southern delegates opposed the rule. Mr. Randall also opposed it, declaring that certain refractory members in the delegation proposed to violate and misrepresent their constituents in voting for Douglas, whose nomination, in his opinion, would lead to certain defeat. He then went into a review of the action of the preceding democratic convention on this subject.

Mr. Richardson rose to reply and asked Mr. Randall who made him an expounder of democratic principles and precedence; how long had the gentleman been in the democratic ranks?

This caused cries of order and great excitement. Several persons rose to points of order. The chairman decided that Mr. Richardson was entitled to the floor, and then changed his decision denying his right.

Mr. Richardson, standing on a chair in the centre of the hall with his sleeves rolled up and determined to be heard, was finally allowed to on, and again attacked Mr. Randall as having recently come into the fold, alluding to his political antecedents as entitling his opinion on democracy to but little consideration. He did not desire after a life's service in the cause, to be reproved by the recruits of yesterday. A warm debate ensued.

At 12 o'clock the convention was called to order. Again Mr. Jackson rose to a question of privilege relative to his state delegation. A motion to adjourn till 4 o'clock was lost. The question was then called on the motion to strike out the rule relative to the right of members of delegations to vote as they think proper, unless instructed by the convention that appointed them. During the calling of the roll, the greatest excitement existed. The Tennessee, Virginia and Indiana delegations protested against the announcement of the chairman, giving the votes as a unit against the adoption of this rule. Ten of the twelve Tennessee delegates were opposed to the manner in which the vote of that state had been recorded. The vote was finally announced as follows: Ayes 101; noes 198; so the rule was adopted; and a majority of a delegation cannot compel the minority to vote with them as a unit, unless instructed by the convention that appointed them.

The resolution offered yesterday for the appointment of a committee on resolutions and platform, was then called up and an amendment offered, that no balloting be allowed for President or Vice President till the committee have made their report.

The vote was then taken on the resolution for the appointment of the committee, which was adopted. The committee was then appointed.

The vote on the rule against unit voting, is regarded as a test vote.

The vote to lay it on the table was as follows: Massachusetts 6; Pennsylvania 14; Deleware 1½; Maryland 3½; Virginia 15; North Carolina 7; South Carolina 8; Georgia 10; Florida 3; Alabama 9; Louisiana 6; Mississippi 7; Texas 4; Arkansas 1½; Missouri 2; California 2½; Oregon 3; total ayes 101; noes all the balance of the states, 191. The rule was then adopted by acclamation and it was referred to the committee on platforms.

The committee on credentials announced that they would not be able to report before to-morrow morning. The convention then adjourned till 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

After the committee on platforms was announced, the motion was renewed on the proposition that no balloting shall take place until the report of the committee on platforms be adopted.

A motion to lay the resolution on the table was rejected ayes 32½, noes 270½. The vote was then taken on the resolution and it was adopted by acclamation.

A long debate then ensued on a propositiod to limit members from speaking more than once on the same subject. It was finally laid over till to-morrow.

The president was directed to invite ministers of the gospel to open the convention with prayer.

Judge Leek presented the Alabama platform.

WASHINGTON, April 24.

Tribune's Correspondence.—The contested election cases will come on next week. Mr. Howard who contests the seat occupied by Mr. Cooper of Michigan, will be first considered and will probably be decided in favor of Mr. Howard. This will be followed by the case of Blair and Barrett of St. Louis. A majority of the committee on elections report that Mr. Blair has presented such evidence of illegal and fraudulent votes having been cast for Mr. Barrett as entitles the former to a seat. The case of Messrs. Anderson and Chisman is next in turn, and the report is in favor of Mr. Anderson, the sitting member. The case of Messrs. Williamson and Sickles will probably go over, as well as will also that of Messrs. Davis and Harris.

CHARLESTON, April 24.

Herald's Correspondence.—Last evening the delegations from the southern states held another caucus, at which great excitement prevailed. They came to the final conclusion that unless there is a resolution inserted in the platform to protect the rights of the south in the territories, they will secede in a body from the convention. As this will scarcely be done there is every probability of a secession.

The following telegraphic despatch was received last night, dated Battle Ground of San Jacinto, Texas, April 21st:

The people assembled en masse here at this time and place nominated Sam Houston as the people's candidate for president in November next. A strong electoral ticket. The platform, the constitution and the Union, down with all sectional issues.
Signed, A. M. GENTRY.

The result here is electric. I am assured it is extremely probable if the Wood delegates are rejected and the platform does not please the south, the seceders will nominate the old hero for president and Fernando Wood for vice president.

CHARLESTON, MIDNIGHT.

Tribune Correspondence.—The Douglas managers express a willingness that the cotton states should secede, regarding such a movement as quickening the chances for two-thirds, but do not estimate its effect on the remaining southern states.

The result now depends greatly on the shape the platform may assume. Soon after the convention adjourned, the belief was entertained that the Louisiana resolutions, covering congressional protection to slavery in the territories, could be carried from the complexion of the committee, northern members being willing to yield principle for the candidate.

The Douglas men claim an accession of more than 20 votes by the rule allowing delegates to vote individually, in delegations which have not been instructed to vote as a unit, and will gain 8 or 10 in Pennsylvania, and if New York should unite as expected, he would have more than a majority on the first ballot. It is said that should Mr. Douglas be nominated, he will come here to address a ratification meeting.

CHARLESTON, 12 o'clock, P. M.

The committee on a platform have just adjourned after a six hours session. They had an exciting discussion. One test vote was taken on the Cincinnati platform, pure and simple, which was rejected—17 nays, to 16 ayes.

Mr. Stevens then moved to incorporate with it the principle of the Dred Scott decision, which is still pending.

It is believed that it will be adopted tomorrow, and be reported to the convention as a basis of settlement.

1 o'CLOCK, A. M.

A portion of the south have conferred with the cotton states, and persuaded them to remain in the convention until after the nomination, with a view of controlling it if possible. The present belief is that there will be no vote till then.

It is not improbable that a contingency may occur in which John Cochrane and others in the New York delegation may go with the seceding south, if the platform be unacceptable. Looking to an ultimate fusion of the Wood interest in the state of New York, he will vote for Mr. Douglas, unless a sudden reaction occurs; and his friends claim 182 on the first ballot, that included.

CHARLESTON, April 25.

The convention met at 10 o'clock. The galleries are crowded with ladies, and on motion, several hundred who were crowding outside were admitted to the floor of the convention, occasioning much good feeling. The resolution restricting the speaking to 15 minutes and but once on a subject was taken up, debated and rejected.

Robinson, chairman of the Vermont, died of apoplexy this morning.

A resolution relating to debate restricting speakers to 15 minutes on all subjects except on platforms, was then introduced and discussion thereon is progressing. A southern delegate demanded that there should be no gag law on any subject.

THE CITY OF JEDDO.—We are just beginning to know something of the eastern shores of Asia. The Yankees are prying into the secrets of the Japanese. A correspondent of the Boston Traveller thus describes the wonderful city of Jeddo: According to the lowest estimate, the city covers an area equal to seven of the New England farming towns, which are usually six miles square. And all is traversed by streets usually wide, well constructed, perfectly neat, and crossing at right angles—streets lined with houses and stores as compactly as they can be built, and crowded with moving or stationary masses as thick as in our Washington street, or New York Broadway, at least for considerable distances. The population is estimated at three millions, which Mr. Harris, our minister, thinks an exaggeration. For my part, judging from what I have seen when I have gone into the heart of the city, and crossed the city from side to side, I should be willing to add as many millions more; for the living, moving masses, seen from sunrise to sunset, and everywhere the same, fairly seemed beyond computation. One city as large as seven small towns in Berkshire county, and containing a population three times as large as that of the whole state of Massachusetts! This is enough to think of for a moment.

HIGH TAXES.—The debt of Allegheny county, in this state, on account of railroad subscriptions, is $2,300,000, on which there is due four years' interest, equal to $552,000. The county tax last year, without providing for railroad bond interest, was ten mills, and ten mills on the present county valuation will raise $250,000. Thus, to meet the ordinary expenses of the county and provide for railroad interest over due, would require thirty-two and a half mills, equal to three and a half per cent. on their valuation for taxes. The city of Pittsburg has a funded railroad debt of $1,800,000, with back interest to the amount of $324,000. The Journal of that city says "the city must meet its share of thirty-two and a half mills of county, twenty-seven mills of her own municipal expenses, and in addition, thirty-five mills for her own railroad debt, making ninety-four and a half mills, or, in round numbers, ten per cent."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Our exchanges from Louisiania complain of drought. Rain, rain, is the word everywhere. The cotton, the sugar, the corn need rain.

Attitude of Persons Killed by Lightning.

"That which particularly characterizes the effects of lightning," writes M. Bondin, "is its suddenness. At one time the individual is killed dead on the spot, remaining in a sitting posture, or even on horseback. At another time he is thrown a long distance."

The first mention made of this kind of death is in the history of Alexander. "During a dreadful tempest," says Quintus Curtius, "which destroyed a thousand men, some were found supported against trees, as if still alive and talking with each other, and just in the attitude in which death had surprised them."

According to Carden, as quoted by Riviere, eight reapers taking their food under an oak were struck by lightning, and died preserving their attitude—one man eating, another drinking. In Lorraine, a woman and one of her children were killed, and remained in a sitting posture. At Dover, a man killed with four horses was found sitting under a bush. A man of law, at Troyes, was killed on horseback; the animal, still continuing his journey, brought home his dead master retaining his posture of a man on horseback.

On the 11th of July, 1816, at Chateauneuf, three fire-balls fell on the church.—Nine persons were killed and eighty-two wounded. All the dogs found in the church were killed, and retained the attitude which they previously had.

On January 22, 1849, a goat was killed near Clermont, and found sitting upon his hind quarters with a branch of green leaves in his mouth.

Now, this phenomenon is sometimes equally observed in persons killed by fire-arms. In the morning Herald of November 8, 1854, the following details are given of a visit to the field of Inkerman, immediately after the combat.

"Many faces still seemed to smile; others had a threatening look; some bodies had a funeral pose, as though laid out by friendly hands; others still knelt upon the ground, convulsively grasping their weapon and biting their cartridges. Many had their arms raised as if endeavoring to ward off a blow, or as if desiring to offer a last prayer. All their faces were pale, and the fierce blowing wind seemed to animate their ded boadies; one would have said that these long lines of the dead were about to rise to recommence the struggle." M. Boudin writes the same thing of the appearance of many of the Russians after the battle of the Alma: "Some seemed still writhing in the agonies of despair and death, but the most wore a look of calm and pious resignation. Some appeared to have words floating on their lips, and a smile as in a sort of high beatitude. One was particularly observed, his knees bent, his hands raised and joined, his head thrown back, murmuring his supreme prayer." At Magenta, again, many dead bodies, as we are informed by Surgeon-Major Armand of the army of Italy, maintained the attitude they had when struck, passing instantaneously from life to death without agony or convulsion. A Zouave, struck point blank in the chest, still held his bayonet in the position of the charge, with the menacing aspect of a dead lion.—His Majesty the Emperor is said to have remarked a similar case at Palestro. Near to the Zouave was an Austrian, dead from hemorrhage. His face and and eyes were turned to heaven, his hands joined, and fingers interlaced, evidently in the attitude of prayer.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

No man will excel in his profession if he thinks himself above it; and commerce will not flourish in any country where commerce is not respected.

It is estimated that the expense of the various investigating committees of the House of Representatives, including the interminable Watrous case before the Judiciary committee, will amount to an aggregate of $150,000 before the close of the present session. It is said that the President has intimated his design to veto all appropriation bills for the payment of the expenses of these committees.

AS IT SHOULD BE.—The Wheeling Intelligencer, an earnest republican paper, it is stated, has now the lagest circulation of any journal in western Virginia.

A sad event happened at Albion, N. Y., last week. A widow woman residing there lost her boy, a child of three years. The neighbors turned out in large numbers and sought for him during a day and two nights; on the second day, he was found dead in a ditch within half a mile of his home. He had clearly died of starvation, after having vainly endeavored to escape the pit into which he had fallen.

Professor Agassiz, according to the Boston Journal, is greatly afflicted with weakness of the eyes, and prosecutes his scientific labors with much difficulty.

Here is something worth knowing, if true: Wm. C. Morgan, of Warren county, Indiana, writes that seed corn from the butt end of the ear, will ripen its product all at the same time, and some three weeks earlier than seed from the little end of the same ear. He recommends farmers always to break their seed corn in too in the middle, and use the butt ends only for seed. Try it.

INDIANA DIVORCES NOT GOOD.—During the recent session of the circuit court at Covington, Ky., Judge Moore decided that divorces granted in Indiana to citizens of Kentucky are not good in the latter state.

THE WAY TO DO IT.—Over one hundred and thirty republican clubs have already been formed in the state of Iowa.

Hon. Thos. F. Marshall, of Kentucky, attempted to lecture at Rochester, N. Y., on Saturday night, but was so drunk that the audience left in disgust.

The winter has been colder and the spring later in England and France than for about thirty years. The season for sowing spring wheat is in a great measure lost, and oats, barley, &c., must be sown instead. Fall wheat has also been injured by frost. The wheat crop of Western Europe, therefore, is expected to be short, but the crop never looked better in Russia.

DIED.

At Clinton, Wis., April 10th, Mrs. SARAH W. OLDS, wife of B. B. Olds, aged 36 years.

The loss of this sister is deeply felt by a large circle of friends, especially by the infant church to which she belonged, and which for the first time has been visited by death. Her gentle disposition, her quiet, unassuming manners, and above all, her deep-toned piety, made her generally beloved and gave her a silent but potent influence in the community where she had long been a resident. In her last sickness, although suffering intensely, she was perfectly calm and patient, and her temper was so refined and heavenly that we feel assured she was prepared for a better world and supported by her Savior in her transit from this. Long will her memory be cherished, and happy will be the lesson of her triumphant death. B.

MOST EXTRAORDINARY RESULTS
FROM THE USE OF
WINCHESTER'S GENUINE
Hypophosphites
IN THE CURE OF CONSUMPTION.

I need only call the attention of all Consumptive sufferers, whether in advanced or the incipient stage of the disease, to the following extract from a letter addressed to me by a physician of great experience, and extensive practice in Chester Co., Pa. The voluntary evidence of professional men, such as that of Dr. Townsend, ought to convince the most skeptical of the extraordinary efficacy of my preparation of Hypophosphites.

CHATHAM, PA., 3d Month, 20th, 1860.

FRIEND J. WINCHESTER:— * * Thirty-six persons have obtained the medicine from me, twelve of whom have been under my own care. Five of them were, in my opinion, and in the judgment of other physicians, hopeless cases of Phthisis—irritable cough, copious expectorations of a purulent character, night sweats and emaciation. These cases were from one to three years' standing. Auscultation and percussion developed sounds which, taken in connection with other symptoms, gave evidence of a condition from which I have never, in seventeen years' practice, seen a single case recover by any other treatment. * * Under the use of the Hypophosphites, all the bad symptoms ceased; they have gained flesh and strength and health—some of them better than they had enjoyed for seven years previously.

The other cases under my care were in the incipient stage, and in them all symptoms and traces of the disease have disappeared. Of those who were not under my care, I have not heard of a single patient who himself benefitted by the use of the remedy, although in some of them the disease was too far advanced to admit the possibility of recovery.

I presume I am as skeptical in medicines or specifics as most physicians; yet, from the experience I have had in the use of Dr. J. F. Churchill's Remedy for Tuberculosis, I would say to all who have a tendency to that disease—take it, and the sooner the better, before there is any disorganization. * * *
W. W. TOWNSEND, M. D.

The Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda act with promptness and certainty in every stage of Consumption, and with invaluable efficacy in all derangements of the nervous and blood systems, general debility, dyspepsia, asthma, rickets, female complaints, spermatorrhea, in all disorders dependent on imperfect or impaired nutrition, and in all cases of local or constitutional debility. They increase the nervous or vital energy, relieve cough, check night sweats, diminish expectoration, improve the appetite, arrest diarrhoea, promote refreshing sleep, and create new and healthful blood. A fair trial is a certain cure.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation

of the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda, is the only reliable form of Dr. Churchill's remedy, and is approved by the medical profession generally. Use no other or any remedy containing iron.

PRICES.—In 7 and 16 ounce (pint) bottles, $1 and $2 each.

Judicial Election.

At our last report, official returns had been received from all the counties in the state except La Pointe. Dixon's majority, on these returns, is 91. They do not, however indicate the vote given for Luther H. Dixon, or L. B. Dixon, or Scott Sloan, nor of any of the towns not returned to the county canvassers. La Pointe is reported at 50 for Dixon, which would give him, on the official count, something like 150 majority.

The question of canvassing the votes counted on the 11th of April will probably be raised before the state canvassers, but what course will be adopted by the state board we have no means of knowing.

Charleston Convention.

The proceedings of this convention are getting decidedly interesting, though the result is as uncertain as ever. Cotton wants to be king, but whether it will rule or ruin, or accomplish both feats, we will wait a little longer before we venture our opinion.—The reports we have received will be found under the telegraphic head.

OCCULTATION OF THE PLANETS.—Besides the occultation of Venus, just witnessed, there will be several others the present year, commencing to-morrow night. We find the following in some of our exchanges:

About midnight of Thursday, April 26th, Jupiter will be eclipsed in the northern part of New Hampshire and Maine, and some of the British provinces; but in the southern part of New England the least distance of the edges of the planet and our satellite will be about one-twentieth the diameter of the latter.

The third of these occultations will be that of Mars, in the morning before sunrise of Thursday, May 10. It will be visible in a large part of the United States and the British provinces. As the moon will then be about five days past the full, the emersion will take place on the dark side. The color of Mars will be a fiery red, as it will be quite near the earth; indeed, at Mars' opposition to the sun, on July 17th next, it will be nearer to us than for several years, with a southern declination, thus giving the astronomers at the Cape of Good Hope an excellent and rare opportunity for determining its parallel with greater precision.

The fourth of this extraordinary series of occultations is that of Jupiter in the forenoon of Thursday, May 24, which will also be visible in a large part of this country, but which, taking place while the sun is above the horizon, can not be seen except with the aid of a very good telescope.

In the remainder of 1860, and in the whole of 1862, no bright planet will be eclipsed in New England. In the evening of May 12, 1861, Mars will be, but then the planet will be quite low and very remote, so that it will shine with but little of its brilliancy in July next.

AN INDIAN'S IDEA OF WOMAN.—General Sam Dale, the southwestern Indian fighter, says, in his memoir just published, that he paid a visit to Washington when Jackson was President, and adds:

"The ladies of Washington struck me, who had so long been accustomed to the sunburned maidens of the woods, as very fair and beautiful, very fascinating and refined. In one thing they differ from our Indian woman; they look one full in the face, and it is difficult to withstand their glances. An Indian maid, when a warrior approaches, bends her head like a drooping leaf. It is only in the deepest recesses, when no others are near, that the lover sees the whole lustre of her eyes, or even the blushes on her cheek. They love intensely, and make the most faithful wives and the tenderest of mothers."

SUDDEN DEATH OF FATHER AND SON.—The Boston Journal of April 17, says: at a town meeting in Medway, yesterday, Mr. Isaac S. Foster, apparently in a fainting fit, fell upon the floor of the town house and soon died. The deceased was fifty-five years old, and probably died from some affection of the heart. In view of the solemn event the meeting was immediately adjourned.—In the afternoon, Mr. Warren Foster, of Hopkinton, son of the above named person, having heard of the death of his father, was preparing to go to Medway, when he was suddenly seized with apparently a fainting fit, and although medical assistance was at hand, he was not restored to consciousness, but expired in a very few minutes.

The slavery propagandists are at work in the Indian territory, attempting to exclude emigrants from the free states by obtaining pledges from the Indians not to sell their lands to any but slave-holders. The officers of the general government in the territory are actively assisting in this work. But the Indians are not unanimously pro-slavery, and there is an excitement on the subject that threatens to make serious mischief.

ARIZONA.—The settlers of Arizona are reported to have held a convention, and framed a provisional government. The constitution and govermental organization adopted are to remain in force till congress shall give them a territorial organization.—L. S. Owen was chosen provisional governor, and Ignatius Orrantia lieutenant governor. Three district judges, and a major general of the militia were also appointed.

ONLY ONE CONDITION.—Senator Wade, when he was struggling the other day to get a hearing for the homestead bill, was sore pressed to give way, but he replied as follows:

For my part, I will not postpone it (the homestead bill) for anything but a funeral, until we have finished it.

HARDLY A BULL, AND YET VERY MUCH LIKE ONE.—The Belfast (Ireland) Society for the prevention of cruelty to Animals, recently memoralized the Home Secretary to stop the fight to come off between Heenan and Sayers.

Aunt E—— was trying to persuade little Eddy to retire at sundown, using an argument that the little chickens went to roost at that time. "Yes," said Eddy, "but the old hen always goes with them." Aunty tried no more argument with him.

City Roads.

[The following communication is in addition to the one referred to yesterday as too blindly written to be read.]

EDITORS OF GAZETTE:—I am pleased in reading your Hon. Mayor's inaugural, to see his recommendation in reference to the thoroughfares of the city of Janesville. He says "all our thoroughfares should be so repaired as to render the city accessible from the surrounding country at all seasons of the year," and gives his reasons. He might have said easily accessible and not exceeded moderation in the advice.

This recommendation shows him to be alive to the welfare of your city, and the necessity of increasing its importance by practical means.

The, to me, seeming necessity of an improvement, particularly in reference to one of the highways of Janesville, has led me to try and add a mite—if that is possible—to induce your city authorities to make a move in that direction. It is of great moment to those living along the line of the old Racine road, that something should be done to render the city more easily accessible than at present for loaded teams from this direction, without traveling around "Robin Hood's barn." We have ever, with a short exception, been under the necessity, if traveling the direct road, of hauling our thousands of loads of grain and other marketables up, or rather through, that sand bluff, which is almost impassable at times from its dryness. And the road has been shut up, altered and discontinued, or bridges thrown down, &c., according as commissioners or supervisors could be found to take sides with the cliques or clans of a neighborhood contention, until frequent passers have been at a loss to know whether they were on the right track for the city. And latterly we are driven over an almost insurmountable hill in addition to the sand, or through the mire and quicksand of Spring Brook.

Now all this could be borne patiently, if there could be no method of relief adopted, but there can be, and as the difficulty exists within the city limits, principally, to the city authorities chiefly does the country look for the remedy.

The present road does very well for light wagons and carriages, but loaded teams do groan for the cruelty of man in compelling them to crawl through that sand with their burdens, when another and easier road to the city market might be provided. There was, for a time, a very good entrance to the city market from this direction, but that has been for nearly a year closed, and it certainly seems to be time, if the produce trade from this region is worth preserving, that the city authorities of Janesville should interfere and give us a moderately decent road.

This is not the voice of one, for I know that I speak the minds of hundreds of your city's supporters—the farmer, having heard complaints without out number about the city's accessibleness. N. D.

Emerald Grove, April 23.

THE DIFFICULTY BETWEEN GOV. WALKER AND ATTORNEY GENERAL BLACK.—The existence of the famous letter of the President to Gov. Walker, which we have published, was disclosed to the Covode committee by a Mr. E. B. Schnabel, who had seen it. In the course of his examination he said he had spoken about the letter to Attorney General Black. The Attorney General denied its existence. He said further, according to Mr. Schnabel:

He declared that no such document existed, and never did exist. I told him I had seen it. He affirmed that I was mistaken; that if such a letter existed no good citizen would withhold it. I inquired of him whether he invited its production in the name of the President. He replied "Yes," that he challenged its production. That if Gov. Walker had such a paper, his duty to his country, as well as himself, required him to produce it. The point in fact, however, he said the story was not founded in truth, or words to that effect. Many severe remarks passed between us. He was in a state of great excitement. When I referred a second time to my having seen it, he again, in high rage, said I was in gross error; that the President never wrote such a document; and if Gov. Walker, or any other person, pretended to have such a document, it was was a mere pretense to cover up a perpetrated or intended treason to the democratic party, or a mere pretext for deserting to the black republican ranks. He further added, that if any one attacked the administration on this ground, (to use his exact words,) "We will put a shirt upon him from which he will never escape."

WIFE VERSUS LADY.—It is certainly not in good taste for a gentleman to speak of his wife as a lady, or to register their names upon the books of a hotel, as "John Smith and Lady;" or to ask a friend, "How is your lady?" This is all fashionable vulgarity, and invariably betrays a lack of cultivation. The term wife is far more beautiful and appropriate and refined, whatever may be said to the contrary. Suppose a lady were to say, instead of "my husband," "my gentleman; or suppose we were to speak of "Mrs. Fitz Maurice and her gentleman." The thing would be positively ludicrous, and its obverse is none the less so, if rightly considered. A man's wife is his wife, and not his lady, and we marvel that this latter term is not utterly tabooed, in such a connection, at least by educated and intelligent people. It ought to be left for the exclusive use of the codfish aristocracy. —Providence Press.

WHOLESALE SLAUGHTER OF INFECTED CATTLE.—The commissioners appointed under an act of the legislature to take measures to exterminate the cattle disease now making such ravages in the towns of North Brookfield and New Braintree, Worcester county, have, after a full examination of the cattle of the infected districts, decided upon the course to pursue, and yesterday commenced the work of slaughter. At the farm of Mr. A. Woodis, twenty-one full grown grey Durham cows, of a valuable kind, with eight or ten calves, were killed. At the farm of Mr. Alanson A. Needham, who has lost seven animals by the disease, the twenty-three remaining were killed. The stock of Leonard Stoddard, consisting of forty-eight head, with several calves, would probably be all slaughtered, as the determination is to kill the whole herd where a portion are infected. Several surgeons accompany the commissioners.—Boston Traveler, Thursday evening.

PIKE'S PEAK WIT.—They have a "poet" at Pike's Peak, who has perpetrated the following squib:

Luck varies with the men who hunt
For gold, as I'll explain:
Some find the ore in creases
While others seek in vein!

Telegraphic

REPORTED FOR THE MORNING GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

CHARLESTON, April 24.

Tribune's Correspondence.—All the speakers at the meeting of the southern delegation, last night, were decidedly radical and uncompromising; nothing short of an extreme platform will satisfy them, except a southern candidate, and he must be Mr. Hunter.

Douglas' defeat or the disruption of the convention seems inevitable. If a combination can be formed to give him the necessary number, six states would instantly withdraw and probably nominate Davis, seconded by Fernando Wood and his followers.

Mr. Buchanan's letter of withdrawal is in the pocket of a delegate.

Mr. Wright, of Pennsylvania, made a strong appeal for harmony, and advocated the rule that every delegate be permitted to cast his vote in accordance with his convictions, and those of his constituents.

Mr. Flourney returned thanks, councelling moderation and harmony. Hon. Caleb Cushing was then introduced as President of the convention, and made a most eloquent speech. His allusion to Calhoun and his motto of "truth, justice and the constitution," called forth prolonged cheering. It was the destiny of the democratic party, he said, to stand upon this and strike down and conquer the traitors and fanaticism arrayed against it in one section of the Union. Mr. Cushing was again loudly cheered upon the conclusion of his address.

About a half an hour was then spent in settling the Vice Presidents and arranging for the secretaries, and also preparing for a formal and energetic enforcement of parliamentary rules in the future proceedings of the convention.

A warm debate then sprung up on the rule reported by the committee on organization, in which Messrs. Richardson, McCook, Cessna of Pennsylvania, Barry of Mississippi, Josiah Randall and many others took part.

Several of the southern delegates opposed the rule. Mr. Randall also opposed it, declaring that certain refractory members in the delegation proposed to violate and misrepresent their constituents in voting for Douglas, whose nomination, in his opinion, would lead to certain defeat. He then went into a review of the action of the preceeding democratic convention on this subject.

Mr. Richardson rose to reply and asked Mr. Randall who made him an expounder of democratic principles and precedence; how long had the gentleman been in the democratic ranks?

This caused cries of order and great excitement. Several persons rose to points of order. The chairman decided that Mr. Richardson was entitled to the floor, and then changed his decision denying his right.

Mr. Richardson, standing on a chair in the centre of the hall with his sleeves rolled up and determined to be heard, was finally allowed to on, and again attacked Mr. Randall as having recently come into the fold, alluding to his political antecedents as entitling his opinion on democracy to but little consideration. He did not desire after a life's service in the cause, to be reproved by the recruits of yesterday. A warm debate ensued.

At 12 o'clock the convention was called to order. Again Mr. Jackson rose to a question of privilege relative to his state delegation. A motion to adjourn till 4 o'clock was lost. The question was then called on the motion to strike out the rule relative to the right of members of delegations to vote as they think proper, unless instructed by the convention that appointed them. During the calling of the roll, the greatest excitement existed. The Tennessee, Virginia and Indiana delegations protested against the announcement of the chairman, giving the votes as a unit against the adoption of this rule. Ten of the twelve Tennessee delegates were opposed to the manner in which the vote of that state had been recorded. The vote was finally announced as follows: Ayes 101; noes 198; so the rule was adopted; and a majority of a delegation cannot compel the minority to vote with them as a unit, unless instructed by the convention that appointed them.

The resolution offered yesterday for the appointment of a committee on resolutions and platform, was then called up and an amendment offered, that no balloting be allowed for President or Vice President till the committee have made their report.

The vote was then taken on the resolution for the appointment of the committee, which was adopted. The committee was then appointed.

The vote on the rule against unit voting, is regarded as a test vote.

The vote to lay it on the table was as follows: Massachusetts 6; Pennsylvania 14; Deleware 1½; Maryland 3½; Virginia 15; North Carolina 7; South Carolina 8; Georgia 10; Florida 3; Alabama 9; Louisiana 6; Mississippi 7; Texas 4; Arkansas 1½; Missouri 2; California 2½; Oregon 3; total ayes 101; noes all the balance of the states, 191. The rule was then adopted by acclamation and it was referred to the committee on platforms.

The committee on credentials announced that they would not be able to report before to-morrow morning. The convention then adjourned till 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

After the committee on platforms was announced, the motion was renewed on the proposition that no balloting shall take place until the report of the committee on platforms be adopted.

A motion to lay the resolution on the table was rejected ayes 32½, noes 270½. The vote was then taken on the resolution and it was adopted by acclamation.

A long debate then ensued on a propositiod to limit members from speaking more than once on the same subject. It was finally laid over till to-morrow.

The president was directed to invite ministers of the gospel to open the convention with prayer.

Judge Leek presented the Alabama platform.

WASHINGTON, April 24.

Tribune's Correspondence.—The contested election cases will come on next week. Mr. Howard who contests the seat occupied by Mr. Cooper of Michigan, will be first considered and will probably be decided in favor of Mr. Howard. This will be followed by the case of Blair and Barrett of St. Louis. A majority of the committee on elections report that Mr. Blair has presented such evidence of illegal and fraudulent votes having been cast for Mr. Barrett as entitles the former to a seat. The case of Messrs. Anderson and Chisman is next in turn, and the report is in favor of Mr. Anderson, the sitting member. The case of Messrs. Williamson and Sickles will probably go over, as well as will also that of Messrs. Davis and Harris.

CHARLESTON, April 24.

Herald's Correspondence.—Last evening the delegations from the southern states held another caucus, at which great excitement prevailed. They came to the final conclusion that unless there is a resolution inserted in the platform to protect the rights of the south in the territories, they will secede in a body from the convention. As this will scarcely be done there is every probability of a secession.

The following telegraphic despatch was received last night, dated Battle Ground of San Jacinto, Texas, April 21st:

The people assembled en masse here at this time and place nominated Sam Houston as the people's candidate for president in November next. A strong electoral ticket. The platform, the constitution and the Union, down with all sectional issues.
Signed, A. M. GENTRY.

The result here is electric. I am assured it is extremely probable if the Wood delegates are rejected and the platform does not please the south, the seceders will nominate the old hero for president and Fernando Wood for vice president.

CHARLESTON, MIDNIGHT.

Tribune Correspondence.—The Douglas managers express a willingness that the cotton states should secede, regarding such a movement as quickening the chances for two-thirds, but do not estimate its effect on the remaining southern states.

The result now depends greatly on the shape the platform may assume. Soon after the convention adjourned, the belief was entertained that the Louisiana resolutions, covering congressional protection to slavery in the territories, could be carried from the complexion of the committee, northern members being willing to yield principle for the candidate.

The Douglas men claim an accession of more than 20 votes by the rule allowing delegates to vote individually, in delegations which have not been instructed to vote as a unit, and will gain 8 or 10 in Pennsylvania, and if New York should unite as expected, he would have more than a majority on the first ballot. It is said that should Mr. Douglas be nominated, he will come here to address a ratification meeting.

CHARLESTON, 12 o'clock, P. M.

The committee on a platform have just adjourned after a six hours session. They had an exciting discussion. One test vote was taken on the Cincinnati platform, pure and simple, which was rejected—17 nays, to 16 ayes.

Mr. Stevens then moved to incorporate with it the principle of the Dred Scott decision, which is still pending.

It is believed that it will be adopted to-morrow, and be reported to the convention as a basis of settlement.

1 O'CLOCK, A. M.

A portion of the south have conferred with the cotton states, and persuaded them to remain in the convention until after the nomination, with a view of controlling it if possible. The present belief is that there will be no vote till then.

It is not improbable that a contingency may occur in which John Cochrane and others in the New York delegation may go with the seceding south, if the platform be unacceptable. Looking to an ultimate fusion of the Wood interest in the state of New York, he will vote for Mr. Douglas, unless a sudden reaction occurs; and his friends claim 182 on the first ballot, that included.

CHARLESTON, April 25.

The convention met at 10 o'clock. The galleries are crowded with ladies, and on motion, several hundred who were crowding outside were admitted to the floor of the convention, occasioning much good feeling. The resolution restricting the speaking to 15 minutes and but once on a subject was taken up, debated and rejected.

Robinson, chairman of the Vermont, died of apoplexy this morning.

A resolution relating to debate restricting speakers to 15 minutes on all subjects except on platforms, was then introduced and discussion thereon is progressing. A southern delegate demanded that there should be no gag law on any subject.

THE CITY OF JEDDO.—We are just beginning to know something of the eastern shores of Asia. The Yankees are prying into the secrets of the Japanese. A correspondent of the Boston Traveller thus describes the wonderful city of Jeddo: According to the lowest estimate, the city covers an area equal to seven of the New England farming towns, which are usually six miles square. And all is traversed by streets usually wide, well constructed, perfectly neat, and crossing at right angles—streets lined with houses and stores as compactly as they can be built, and crowded with moving or stationary masses as thick as in our Washington street, or New York Broadway, at least for considerable distances. The population is estimated at three millions, which Mr. Harris, our minister, thinks an exaggeration. For my part, judging from what I have seen when I have gone into the heart of the city, and crossed the city from side to side, I should be willing to add as many millions more; for the living, moving masses, seen from sunrise to sunset, and everywhere the same, fairly seemed beyond computation. One city as large as seven small towns in Berkshire county, and containing a population three times as large as that of the whole state of Massachusetts! This is enough to think of for a moment.

HIGH TAXES.—The debt of Allegheny county, in this state, on account of railroad subscriptions, is $2,300,000, on which there is due four years' interest, equal to $552,000. The county tax last year, without providing for railroad bond interest, was ten mills, and ten mills on the present county valuation will raise $250,000. Thus, to meet the ordinary expenses of the county and provide for railroad-interest over due, would require thirty-two and a half mills, equal to three and a half per cent. on their valuation for taxes. The city of Pittsburg has a funded railroad debt of $1,800,000, with back interest to the amount of $324,000. The Journal of that city says "the city must meet its share of thirty-two and a half mills of county, twenty-seven mills of her own municipal expenses, and in addition, thirty-five mills for her own railroad debt, making ninety-four and a half mills, or, in round numbers, ten per cent."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Our exchanges from Louisiania complain of drought. Rain, rain, is the word everywhere. The cotton, the sugar, the corn need rain.

Attitude of Persons Killed by Lightning.

"That which particularly characterizes the effects of lightning," writes M. Boudin, "is its suddenness. At one time the individual is killed dead on the spot, remaining in a sitting posture, or even on horseback. At another time he is thrown a long distance."

The first mention made of this kind of death is in the history of Alexander. "During a dreadful tempest," says Quintus Curtius, "which destroyed a thousand men, some were found supported against trees, as if still alive and talking with each other, and just in the attitude in which death had surprised them."

According to Carden, as quoted by Riviere, eight reapers taking their food under an oak were struck by lightning, and died preserving their attitude—one man eating, another drinking. In Lorraine, a woman and one of her children were killed, and remained in a sitting posture. At Dover, a man killed with four horses was found sitting under a bush. A man of law, at Troyes, was killed on horseback; the animal, still continuing his journey, brought home his dead master retaining his posture of a man on horseback.

On the 11th of July, 1816, at Chateauneuf, three fire-balls fell on the church.—Nine persons were killed and eighty-two wounded. All the dogs found in the church were killed, and retained the attitude which they previously had.

On January 22, 1849, a goat was killed near Clermont, and found sitting upon his hind quarters with a branch of green leaves in his mouth.

Now, this phenomenon is sometimes equally observed in persons killed by fire-arms. In the morning Herald of November 8, 1854, the following details are given of a visit to the field of Inkerman, immediately after the combat.

"Many faces still seemed to smile; others had a threatening look; some bodies had a funeral pose, as though laid out by friendly hands; others still knelt upon the ground, convulsively grasping their weapon and biting their cartridges. Many had their arms raised as if endeavoring to ward off a blow, or as if desiring to offer a last prayer. All their faces were pale, and the fierce blowing wind seemed to animate their ded boadies; one would have said that these long lines of the dead were about to rise to recommence the struggle." M. Boudin writes the same thing of the appearance of many of the Russians after the battle of the Alma: "Some seemed still writhing in the agonies of despair and death, but the most wore a look of calm and pious resignation. Some appeared to have words floating on their lips, and a smile as in a sort of high beatitude. One was particularly observed, his knees bent, his hands raised and joined, his head thrown back, murmuring his supreme prayer." At Magenta, again, many dead bodies, as we are informed by Surgeon-Major Armand of the army of Italy, maintained the attitude they had when struck, passing instantaneously from life to death without agony or convulsion. A Zouave, struck point blank in the chest, still held his bayonet in the position of the charge, with the menacing aspect of a dead lion.—His Majesty the Emperor is said to have remarked a similar case at Palestro. Near to the Zouave was an Austrian, dead from hemorrhage. His face and and eyes were turned to heaven, his hands joined, and fingers interlaced, evidently in the attitude of prayer.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

No man will excel in his profession if he thinks himself above it; and commerce will not flourish in any country where commerce is not respected.

It is estimated that the expense of the various investigating committees of the House of Representatives, including the intermidable Watrous case before the Judiciary committee, will amount to an aggregate of $150,000 before the close of the present session. It is said that the President has intimated his design to veto all appropriation bills for the payment of the expenses of these committees.

AS IT SHOULD BE.—The Wheeling Intelligencer, an earnest republican paper, it is stated, has now the lagest circulation of any journal in western Virginia.

A sad event happened at Albion, N. Y., last week. A widow woman residing there lost her boy, a child of three years. The neighbors turned out in large numbers and sought for him during a day and two nights; on the second day, he was found dead in a ditch within half a mile of his home. He had clearly died of starvation, after having vainly endeavored to escape the pit into which he had fallen.

Professor Agassiz, according to the Boston Journal, is greatly afflicted with weakness of the eyes, and prosecutes his scientific labors with much difficulty.

Here is something worth knowing, if true: Wm. C. Morgan, of Warren county, Indiana, writes that seed corn from the butt end of the ear, will ripen its product all at the same time, and some three weeks earlier than seed from the little end of the same ear. He recommends farmers always to break their seed corn in too in the middle, and use the butt ends only for seed. Try it.

INDIANA DIVORCES NOT GOOD.—During the recent session of the circuit court at Covington, Ky., Judge Moore decided that divorces granted in Indiana to citizens of Kentucky are not good in the latter state.

THE WAY TO DO IT.—Over one hundred and thirty republican clubs have already been formed in the state of Iowa.

Hon. Thos. F. Marshall, of Kentucky, attempted to lecture at Rochester, N. Y., on Saturday night, but was so drunk that the audience left in disgust.

The winter has been colder and the spring later in England and France than for about thirty years. The season for sowing spring wheat is in a great measure lost, and oats, barley, &c., must be sown instead. Fall wheat has also been injured by frost. The wheat crop of Western Europe, therefore, is expected to be short, but the crop never looked better in Russia.

MARRIED.

DIED.

At Clinton, Wis., April 10th, Mrs. SARAH W. OLDS, wife of B. B. Olds, aged 36 years.

The loss of this sister is deeply felt by a large circle of friends, especially by the infant church to which she belonged, and which for the first time has been visited by death. Her gentle disposition, her quiet, unassuming manners, and above all, her deep-toned piety, made her generally beloved and gave her a silent but potent influence in the community where she had long been a resident. In her last sickness, although suffering intensely, she was perfectly calm and patient, and her temper was so refined and heavenly that we feel assured she was prepared for a better world and supported by her Savior in her transit from this. Long will her memory be cherished, and happy will be the lesson of her triumphant death. B.

MOST EXTRAORDINARY RESULTS
FROM THE USE OF
WINCHESTER'S GENUINE
Hypophosphites
IN THE CURE OF CONSUMPTION.

I need only call the attention of all Consumptive sufferers, whether in advanced or the incipient stage of the disease, to the following extract from a letter addressed to me by a physician of great experience, and extensive practice in Chester Co., Pa. The voluntary evidence of professional men, such as that of Dr. Townsend, ought to convince the most skeptical of the extraordinary efficacy of my preparation of Hypophosphites:

CHATHAM, PA., 3d Month, 23th, 1860.

FRIEND J. WINCHESTER:— * * Thirty-six persons have obtained the medicine from me, twelve of whom have been under my own care. Five of them were, in my opinion, and in the judgment of other physicians, hopeless cases of Phthisis—irritable cough, copious expectorations of a purulent character, night sweats and emaciation. These cases were from one to three years' standing. Auscultation and percussion developed sounds which, taken in connection with other symptoms, gave evidence of a condition from which I have never, in seventeen years' practice, seen a single case recover by any other treatment. * * Under the use of the Hypophosphites, all the bad symptoms ceased; they have gained flesh and strength and health—some of them better than they had enjoyed for seven years previously.

The other cases under my care were in the incipient stage, and in them all symptoms and traces of the disease have disappeared. Of those who were not under my care, I have not heard of a single patient who himself benefitted by the use of the remedy, although in some of them the disease was too far advanced to admit the possibility of recovery.

I presume I am as skeptical in medicines or specifics as most physicians; yet, from the experience I have had in the use of Dr. J. F. Churchill's Remedy for Tuberculosis, I would say to all who have a tendency to that disease—take it, and the sooner the better, before there is any disorganization.

W. W. TOWNSEND, M. D.

The Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda act with promptness and certainty in every stage of Consumption, and with invariable efficacy in all derangements of the nervous and blood systems, general debility, dyspepsia, asthma, rickets, female complaints, spermatorrhea, in all disorders dependent on imperfect or impaired nutrition, and in all cases of local or constitutional debility. They increase the nervous or vital energy, relieve cough, check night sweats, diminish expectoration, improve the appetite, arrest diarrhœa, promote refreshing sleep, and create new and healthful blood. A fair trial is a certain cure.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation

of the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda, is the only reliable form of Dr. Churchill's remedy, and is approved by the medical profession generally. Use no other or any remedy containing iron.

PRICES.—In 7 and 16 ounce (pint) bottles, $1 and $2 each.

OCCULTATION OF VENUS.—Every thing favored the "free show" we advertised yesterday. The sky was perfectly clear, and both parties in the exhibition shone in unclouded splendor. They were seen directly over the middle chimney in the east end of the Hyatt House. When we were admitted to the exhibition, Venus was resting on the extreme point of one of the horns of Madame Luna. Earlier visitors, however, saw the "lovely goddess" from 4 to 6 inches distant from the point where we first observed it. In the course of an hour, the strolling beauty passed entirely through the illuminated part of "the queen of night," (we believe this is what poets called the old dame) and emerged about 4 inches below the point of the horn. A good many people thought the sight a very fine one, and that they got their money's worth out of the show.

PALMER'S PATENT CLOTHES DRYER.—One of the publishers of this paper has one of these clothes dryers set up at his residence, and from the report of the female portion of the household, he is prepared to give it a good recommendation. In its construction it possesses some manifest advantages over others in use, and in all respects seems a model institution. We doubt not when its merits are generally known it will meet with a ready and large sale.

The owner, in consideration of this woman's being an old and faithful servant of the family, offers to sell the three children for half their value, namely [illegible] thousand dollars. She has already raised about five hundred of the purchase money, and is endeavoring to make up the balance. We have examined the papers and testimonials she has, and are satisfied they are all right. She will in the course of the next few days call on our citizens to solicit contributions, and we trust all who are able will give something.—Free [illegible]

Mrs. Wright, we understand, is now in this city. She has strong claims upon the [illegible] who are able to give, and [illegible] receive generous aid.

[illegible]:—May we through your paper [illegible] grateful acknowledgments [illegible] friends in the vicinity of [illegible] who gave us such a liberal [illegible] Wednesday, April 18th. [illegible] Our readers will remember the massacre of the family of Mr. [illegible] Miltimore last year by a band of Indians. We find in the Chicago Tribune the following letter in relation to the survivors.

CAMP FLOYD, U. T., Feb. 1, '60.
[illegible] William Miltimore and James Miltimore, Chicago, Illinois:

GENTLEMEN:—Your brother, Mr. Edward Miltimore, was traveling with his family on the route 100 miles north of Salt Lake City last August, and on the 31st of that month the Indians (or Mormons, disguised as such,) attacked and massacred Edward Miltimore, his wife, Catharine Miltimore, and his children, viz: James Miltimore, aged 17 years; William Miltimore, aged 11; Albert Miltimore, aged 4; Mary Ella Miltimore, aged 2, and the babe (not named) 3 months old. There survived, Fanny, 24 years old; [illegible] 18 years old, Elouza, 15 years old; and Nelson, 13 years old.

[illegible] and Elouza are now living at my house, and desire to remain with me and accompany me to Chicago, and have requested me to write this letter to you, gentlemen, as being their uncles, which I accordingly do, and send the same through my father-in-law, Dr. David Rutter. The children would like to hear from you or any of you. Respectfully,

G. T. TURNLEY, U. S. Army.

Dr. David Rutter will confer a favor by finding out the residences of the persons addressed in this letter and have the same delivered.

G. T. T.

The Tribune says it is requested to state that any person seeking information relative to these parties, can obtain further information by calling on Dr. David Rutter, 119 Wabash Avenue, Chicago.

The Detroit Free Press of the 15th, gives a singular case of Miss Amanda Young, the daughter of a lawyer of that name of Toledo, who left home clandestinely, went to Detroit, and endeavored to effect an engagement by which she could become an actress. She made proposals to the management of a theatrical company of Toledo, but these are declined, knowing that she was stage struck, and that her friends would not permit her to go on the stage. Her father followed her to Detroit, and traced her to the Russell House, which she left in a carriage for the depot, and since then cannot be found, although it is believed she is secreted in Detroit.

Grapes are displayed in the windows of Broadway fruiteries, with the notice attached, $3 per pound. It is needless to say that they are sour grapes.

A Mr. Albert Stein has been found guilty of supplying the citizens of Mobile with poisonous water, and fined $2,000, he having used lead instead of iron pipes for leads in the Water Works of that city.

Miss Nightingale says an English paper, still remains in a feeble state, and is compelled to remain generally in a recumbent position. Though week in body, she is, however, strong in her mental powers, and pursues her humanising design with much spirit and industry.

Mrs. Chestnut, of South Carolina, the Vice Regent of the Mount Vernon Association in that state, is eighty-five years of age. She was one of the young girls who strewed flowers in his path, when, in 1789, Washington was received with public honors at Trenton.

LIFE INSURANCE.—Those desiring this safest and cheapest protection for their families, can secure it in our Wisconsin company. It has already become, in reality, a state institution, having agents and patrons among the best business men in all the principal towns in the state. It is no longer a matter of doubt that life insurance can be conducted as well in Wisconsin as in Connecticut or any other eastern state.

Thus while duty demands that men should insure their lives, it also demands that they should keep their money for investment at home. Confident that our success has been more than equal to that of the most "unprecedented," we would cordially invite all our citizens to call at the office, south-west corner of Main and Wisconsin streets, and examine for themselves.

S. S. DAGGETT, Pres't.
A. W. KELLOGG, Sec'y.

☞ Messrs. Pixley & Harlow, produce dealers, and Capt. Geo. S. Dodge will receive applications for insurance in this home company, and will also be happy to give information as to the condition thereof, to any one desirous of being informed, in Janesville. apr13dawly

COMMERCIAL.

Janesville Wholesale Market.

Reported for the Janesville Gazette, by BUMP & GRAY, GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

JANESVILLE, APRIL 24, 1860.

The recent favorable news from the New York and foreign markets caused quite an improvement in the wheat market to-day. Receipts were about 3000 bushels, which sold at 95@93c for milling spring, and 91@94 for shipping—closing, however, not very firm at these figures. Receipts of other grains fair and prices unchanged.

We make up prices as follows:

WHEAT—white winter 1.09a1.12½; good to choice milling spring at 95a98; common to fair shipping, 91 a94.

CORN—shelled, per 60 lbs, 38a42c; ear per 70 lbs, 30a35c.

OATS—declined to 25a28 per bushel.

BARLEY—in good request at 45a55c per 50 lbs., fair to choice.

RYE—quotable at 60a65 per 60 lbs. None coming forward.

POTATOES—plenty at 30a45 per bushel for good to choice ones.

TIMOTHY SEED—scarce and in demand at 2.25a2.60 per 46 lbs.

BUTTER—plenty at 11a13.

EGGS—in fair demand at 7a8 per dozen.

HIDES—green, 6a6½; dry flint, 12a14.

FLOUR—spring at retail, 2.00, winter, 3.50.

POULTRY—chickens, 6a7; turkeys, 7a8.

Chicago Market.

Tuesday Evening, April 24.

Wheat active and the market advanced 1a1½c, with a good demand for speculation and shipment—sales being liberal at 1,09½ for No 1 spring, 1,04 for No 2, and 1.11 for choice club on track. Oats were in better demand and a shade firmer, with sales at 31a31½ for No 1 in store. Rye scarce and firm. Barley in good demand at 65a74. Highwines, 18.

The market for beef cattle during the past week has been unusually quiet. There have been several lots of fine cattle received, but they were held above the views of buyers and the owners shipped them through to New York. Harris, of Champaign county, had a lot of fat beeves that would weigh about 1400 lbs. Another lot of 650 was sold at 4,00. Good fair lots have changed at 2.50a3.75, and a few lots of prime at 3,95a4,00.

Milwaukee Market.

Tuesday Afternoon, April 24.

The wheat market opened with a strong upward tendency this morning, and as soon as advices had been received from New York, reporting prices better there, an advance of 1c was obtained. No 1 in store, 1,04; No 2, 1,02. Good to extra flour, 5,00a5,25; prime brands, 5 50a5.75.

TOMATO CATSUP.

A FRESH lot of superior Tomato Catsup, expressly for family use, received to-day at WHEELOCK'S.

Non-Explosive Burning Fluid

USED WITH SAFETY & ECONOMY.

The Best in the Market.

Palmer's Drug and Tea Store.

WE have, for several years past dealt largely in BURNING FLUID, and have always, thus far, kept fully up to the times, in any improvements made in its manufacture. Nearly a year ago, in an appeal in favor of its more general use, based upon the fact that the raw material from which it is made, is mainly the product of our own farms, we publicly announced that there was, at the temperature at which it is generally used, "no explosive power whatever in Burning Fluid, as now made by those who understand the business in which they are engaged. That injury from its use was either the result of gross carelessness, or of undue alarm caused by a belief in its explosive power," &c. Since then we have manufactured and sold thousand of gallons to consumers in this city and vicinity, and if our assumption was an erroneous one, it would undoubtedly have been discovered ere this.

We are prepared to submit our Fluid to any test the public may call for, satisfied that, with ordinary care, no safer, better or more agreeable light can be produced. As we are indebted to no traveling "PROF. GREEN—O!" for the high state of perfection attained by us in its manufacture, we are, as usual, prepared to offer our Fluid at the LOWEST MARKET FIGURES, and to guarantee entire satisfaction in its use, or the money refunded. OCCULTATION OF VENUS.—Every thing favored the "free show" we advertised yesterday. The sky was perfectly clear, and both parties in the exhibition shone in unclouded splendor. They were seen directly over the middle chimney in the east end of the Hyatt House. When we were admitted to the exhibition, Venus was resting on the extreme point of one of the horns of Madame Luna. Earlier visitors, however, saw the "lovely goddess" from 4 to 6 inches distant from the point where we first observed it. In the course of an hour, the strolling beauty passed entirely through the illuminated part of "the queen of night," (we believe that is what poets called the old dame,) and emerged about 4 inches below the point of the horn. A good many people thought the sight a very fine one, and that they got their money's worth out of the show.

PALEMR'S PATENT CLOTHES DRYER.—One of the publishers of this paper has one of these clothes dryers set up at his residence, and from the report of the female portion of the household, he is prepared to give it a good recommendation. In its construction it possesses some manifest advantages over others in use, and in all respects seems a model institution. We think that when its merits are generally known, it will meet with a ready and large sale.

A COMELY MACHINE.—The locomotive engine on the Chicago and Northwestern railway, Wm. B. Ogden, has recently been turned out of the workshop of that company in Chicago in what may appropriately be called a new dress; and a perfect beauty it is. The Tribune says that it is conceded that nothing higher has ever been attained in any engine ever brought to that city than the Ogden worthily bears. The silver plating is exquisite, and was turned out at Hamblen's Lamp and Silver Plate Works on Franklin street, and is something beyond the usual or common in that line.

The Ogden is now making regular trips on the road, and is universally admired and commended by railroad men and others.

☞ Rev. H. C. Tilton will deliver a lectures before the Workers Union this evening, at 7½ o'clock in the Methodist church. Subject—"The Signs and Demands of the Times." Admission free.

A colored widow woman, named Miller Wright, is in town, soliciting aid to purchase her three children, who are in slavery on the eastern shore of Maryland. The owner, in consideration of this woman's being an old and faithful servant of the family, offers to sell the three children for half their value, namely one thousand dollars. She has already raised about five hundred of the purchase money, and is endeavoring to make up the balance. We have examined the papers and testimonials she has, and are satisfied they are all right. She will in the course of the next few days call on our citizens to solicit contributions, and we trust all who are able will give something.—Free Democrat.

Mrs. Wright, we understand, is now in this city. She has strong claims upon the liberality of all who are able to give, and we hope may receive generous aid.

MR. EDITOR:—May we through your paper, express our greatful acknowledgments to our numerous friends in the vicinity of Emerald Grove, who gave us such a liberal donation last Wednesday, April 18th. It was a very interesting gathering, and the old and the young seemed to enjoy themselves so much in the visit, that although we appreciate the gifts exceedingly, we were reminded of the word of the Lord, "It is more blessed to give than to receive."

On that occasion the donors and the beneficiaries were mdae very happy by the visit. May God always reward such manifest generosity.

INDIAN MASSACRE.—Our readers will remember the massacre of the family of Mr. Edward Miltimore last year by a band of Indians. We find in the Chicago Tribune the following letter in relation to the survivors:

CAMP FLOYD, U. T., Feb. 1, '60.

To Aaron Miltimore, Ira Miltimore, and James Miltimore, Chicago, Illinois:

GENTLEMEN:—Your brother, Mr. Edward Miltimore, was traveling with his family on the route 100 miles north of Salt Lake City last August, and on the 31st of that month the Indians (or Mormons, disguised as such.) attacked and massacred Edward Miltimore, his wife, Catharine Miltimore, and his children, viz: James Miltimore, aged 17 years; William Miltimore, aged 11; Albert Miltimore, aged 8; Mary Ella Miltimore, aged 4, and the babe (not named) 3 months old.

There survived, Fanny, 24 years old; George, 18 years old, Elouza, 15 years old; and Nelson, 13 years old.

Nelson and Elouza are now living at my house, and desire to remain with me and accompany me to Chicago, and have requested me to write this letter to you, gentlemen, as being their uncles, which I accordingly do, and send the same through my father-in-law, Dr. David Rutter. The children would like to hear from you or any of you. Respectfully.

G. T. TURNLEY, U. S. Army.

Dr. David Rutter will confer a favor by finding out the residences of the persons addressed in this letter and have the same delivered.

G. T. T.

The Tribune says it is requested to state that any person seeking information relative to these parties, can obtain further information by calling on Dr. David Rutter, 119 Wabash Avenue, Chicago.

The Detroit Free Press of the 15th, gives a singular case of Miss Amanda Young, the daughter of a lawyer of that name of Toledo, who left home clandestinely, went to Detroit, and endeavored to effect an engagement by which she could become an actress. She made proposals to the management of a theatrical company of Toledo, but these are declined, knowing that she was stage struck, and that her friends would not permit her to go on the stage. Her father followed her to Detroit, and traced her to the Russell House, which she left in a carriage for the depot, and since then cannot be found, although it is believed she is secreted in Detroit.

Grapes are displayed in the windows of Broadway fruiteries, with the notice attached, $3 per pound. It is needless to say that they are sour grapes.

A Mr. Albert Stein has been found guilty of supplying the citizens of Mobile with poisonous water, and fined $2,000, he having used lead instead of iron pipes for leads in the Water Works of that city.

Miss Nightingale says an English paper, still remains in a feeble state, and is compelled to remain generally in a recumbent position. Though week in body, she is, however, strong in her mental powers, and pursues her humanising design with much spirit and industry.

Mrs. Chestnut, of South Carolina, the Vice Regent of the Mount Vernon Association in that state, is eighty-five years of age. She was one of the young girls who strewed flowers in his path, when, in 1789, Washington was received with public honors at Trenton.

LIFE INSURANCE.—Those desiring this safest and cheapest protection for their families, can secure it in our Wisconsin company. It has already become, in reality, a state institution, having agents and patrons among the best business men in all the principal towns in the state. It is no longer a matter of doubt that life insurance can be conducted as well in Wisconsin as in Connecticut or any other eastern state.

Thus while duty demands that men should insure their lives, it also demands that they should keep their money for investment at home. Confident that our success has been more than equal to that of the most "unprecedented," we would cordially invite all our citizens to call at the office, south-west corner of Main and Wisconsin streets, and examine for themselves.

S. S. DAGGETT, Pres't.
A. W. KELLOGG, Sec'y.

☞ Messrs. Pixley & Harlow, produce dealers, and Capt. Geo. S. Dodge will receive applications for insurance in this home company, and will also be happy to give information as to the condition thereof, to any one desirous of being informed, in Janesville.

COMMERCIAL.

Janesville Wholesale Market.

Reported for the Janesville Gazette,
BY BUMP & GRAY.
GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

JANESVILLE, APRIL 24, 1860.

The recent favorable news from the New York and foreign markets caused quite an improvement in the wheat market to-day. Receipts were about 3000 bushels, which sold at 95@98c for milling spring, and 91@94 for shipping—closing, however, not very firm at these figures. Receipts of other grains fair and prices unchanged.

We make up prices as follows:

WHEAT—white winter 1.00a1.12½; good to choice milling spring at 95a98; common to fair shipping, 91 a94.

CORN—shelled, per 60 lbs., 38a42c; ear per 70 lbs. 30a33c.

OATS—declined to 25a26 per bushel.

BARLEY—in good request at 45a55c per 50 lbs., fair to choice.

RYE—quotable at 60a65 per 60 lbs. None coming forward.

POTATOES—plenty at 30a40 per bushel for good to choice ones.

TIMOTHY SEED—scarce and in demand at 2.25a2.60 per 46 lbs.

BUTTER—plenty at 11a13.

EGGS—in fair demand at 7a8 per dozen.

HIDES—green, 6a6½; dry flint, 12a14.

FLOUR—spring at retail, 2.60, winter, 3.50.

POULTRY—chickens, 6a7; turkeys, 7a8.

Chicago Market.

Tuesday Evening, April 24.

Wheat active and the market advanced 1a1½c, with a good demand for speculation and shipment—sales being liberal at 1,06¼ for No 1 spring, 1,04 for No 2, and 1,11 for choice club on track. Oats were in better demand and a shade firmer, with sales at 31a31½ for No 1 in store. Rye scarce and firm. Barley in good demand at 68a74. Highwines, 18.

The market for beef cattle during the past week has been unusually quiet. There have been several lots of fine cattle received, but they were held above the views of buyers and the owners shipped them through to New York. Harris, of Champaign county, had a lot of fat beeves that would weigh about 1400 lbs. Another lot of 800 was sold at 4,00. Good fair lots have changed at 2,50a3,75, and a few lots of prime at 3,95a4,00.

Milwaukee Market.

Tuesday Afternoon, April 24.

The wheat market opened with a strong upward tendency this morning, and as soon as advices had been received from New York, reporting prices better there, an advance of 1c was obtained. No 1 in store, 1,04; No 2, 1,02. Good to extra flour, 5,00a5,25; prime brands, 5.50a5.75.

Non-Explosive Burning Fluid

USED WITH SAFETY & ECONOMY.

The Best in the Market.

Palmer's Drug and Tea Store.

WE have, for several years past dealt largely in BURNING FLUID, and have always, thus far, kept fully up to the times, in any improvements made in its manufacture. Nearly a year ago, in an appeal in favor of its more general use, based upon the fact that the raw material from which it is made, is mainly the product of our own farms, we publicly announced that there was, at the temperature at which it is generally used, "no explosive power whatever in Burning Fluid, as now made by those who understand the business in which they are engaged. That injury from its use was either the result of gross carelessness, or of undue alarm caused by a belief in its explosive power," &c. Since then we have manufactured and sold thousand of gallons to consumers in this city and vicinity, and if our assumption was an erroneous one, it would undoubtedly have been discovered ere this.

We are prepared to submit our Fluid to any test the public may call for, satisfied that, with ordinary care, no safer, better or more agreeable light can be produced. As we are indebted to no traveling "PROF. GREEN—O!" for the high state of perfection attained by us in its manufacture, we are, as usual, prepared to offer our Fluid at the LOWEST MARKET FIGURES, and to guarantee entire satisfaction in its use, or the money refunded.
